Mixing 50% raw and 50% ripe Puerh, it produces a dark coppery liquor with a woody aroma and a bittersweet aftertaste.

H. Upmann Half Corona

There is strong tobacco packed into this little corona, and it produces a chewy, earthy smoke full of leather and nuts.

HKD 110/ per stick

Partagas Shorts

The minutes tastes like a mini D4. Cedar bomb first third with earth and spice. Second third you are hit with honey and cinnamon. Cedar and spice tail off. Creamy all the way through.

HKD 130/ per stick

Hoyo de Monterrey Petit Robustos

A near-pristine short robusto with a sweet, toasty maple and brown sugar quality. Hints of wood and nutmeg usher in the slightly sharp finish.

HKD 180/ per stick

Partagas Serie D No. 5

This attractive short robusto draws and burns evenly, offering oaky, white wine intonations. Leather and coffee notes emerge as the cigar progresses.

HKD 190/ per stick

Cohiba Robustos

Crafted with a flat head and three-seam cap, this oily robusto has an open, full draw. Its initial floral character becomes woody and bready before taking on a vanilla bean and molasses character.

HKD 470/ per stick

Partagás Coronas Gorda

This cigar have been box aged for between 5 to 8 years in the perfect humidity conditions of Cuba. Flavorful with creamy cinnamon, grains and sweet fruits, definitely all classic Partagás notes, but seemingly more rich and robust.

HKD 300/ per stick

Padron 85 Years Family Reserve

An initially zesty cigar, this neatly pressed robusto becomes more rich and dense, taking on heavier notes of almond paste, licorice and sweet woodiness.

HKD 430/ per stick

Cohiba Maduro 5 Genios

A more intense and rich blend than the Cohiba general line. There is a lot of earthy cocoa powder and caramel sweetness to this cigar, which imparts a densely textured smoke. The sweetness fades a bit for woodiness and a touch of char on the finish.
