胎菊

Baby Chrysanthemum $120

The good graded baby chrysanthemum is from China Zhejiang. Bright yellow infusion with a very gentle, sweet taste and elegant aroma. Good for eyes and lowering internal body heat.

花香龍珠

Orient Jasmine Pearls $120

Hand rolled spheres of young shoots scented with fragrant jasmine. Leaving the tea to nestle amongst the flowers allows the natural floral scent to absorb into the

馬騮搥

Monkey Pick Oolong $110

The special aroma is formed by using traditional method of manually frying the teas over wood charcoal. Unique aromas that are unveiled with each successive steeping as the leaves unfurl.

茉莉金花

Jasmine Blossoms $120

Fragrant jasmine tea hand tied around sweet flowers. A hypnotic display of colour, heavenly calming. Golden infusion with a good level of astringency.

碧螺春

Bi Lo Chun $120

It is one of China's Ten Famous teas. The liquor is bright yellow in color. The first infusion is strong and has a lasting aftertaste. Second infusion features more complex shifting fruity, flowery and nutty notes in the taste.

古樹普洱

Ancient Tree Puerh $120

The fully fermented tea improves with age as it continues maturing to create a smooth, mellow flavor. It helps warming properties, aid to digestion and lower cholesterol.

Cigar Selections

H. Upmann Half Corona

There is strong tobacco packed into this little corona, and it produces a chewy, earthy smoke full of leather and nuts.

HKD 110/ per stick

Partagas Shorts

The minutes tastes like a mini D4. Cedar bomb first third with earth and spice. Second third you are hit with honey and cinnamon. Cedar and spice tail off. Creamy all the way through.

HKD 130/ per stick

Hoyo de Monterrey Petit Robustos

A near-pristine short robusto with a sweet, toasty maple and brown sugar quality. Hints of wood and nutmeg usher in the slightly sharp finish.

HKD 180/ per stick

Partagás Serie D No. 5

This attractive short robusto draws and burns evenly, offering oaky, white wine intonations. Leather and coffee notes emerge as the cigar progresses.

HKD 190/ per stick

Cohiba Robustos

Crafted with a flat head and three-seam cap, this oily robusto has an open, full draw. Its initial floral character becomes woody and bready before taking on a vanilla bean and molasses character.

HKD 470/ per stick

Partagás Coronas Gorda

This cigar have been box aged for between 5 to 8 years in the perfect humidity conditions of Cuba. Flavourful with creamy cinnamon, grains and sweet fruits, definitely all classic Partagás notes, but seemingly more rich and robust.

HKD 300/ per stick

Padron 85 Years Family Reserve

An initially zesty cigar, this neatly pressed robusto becomes more rich and dense, taking on heavier notes of almond paste, liquorice and sweet woodiness.

HKD 430/ per stick

Cohiba Maduro 5 Genios

A more intense and rich blend than the Cohiba general line. There is a lot of earthy cocoa powder and caramel sweetness to this cigar, which imparts a densely textured smoke. The sweetness fades a bit for woodiness and a touch of char on the finish.

HKD 610/ per stick
